

Dr. A P J Kalam felicitates Dr. P Sekhar for his significant contribution in the Security Segment

On 15th August 2008, The Chairman & Managing Director of Micro Technologies (India) Ltd. Dr. P. Sekhar has been felicitated by the former President Dr. Abdul Kalam at the 75th year of a prestigious institution SIES College to give the honors to eminent personalities who significantly contributed to the institution and the nation at large.

Dr. P. Sekhar, after his Ph.D in Nuclear Physics and Solid State Electronics has developed Technologies for Global market in the fields of IT, Security including rapidly emerging spheres in wireless, Health and Energy technologies, to create products for the utilization of common man globally to make a difference in the society. His vision and dream was to introduce Innovative technology products to the world to improve the life style by giving safety, security and life support through Micro Technologies (India) Ltd. Micro Technologies India Ltd. is a leading provider of the much-needed security devices, life support systems and web-based software solutions. It has incepted high-end security products, right from mobile security to automobile security & Monitoring Systems. Micro Technologies under his guidance has grown consistently and his dream to serve the society in terms of technology has come true. Micro Technologies has also been felicitated by many awards like “Maharashtra IT Award”, for R&D in IT sector, “Delloitte Fast 500 Asia Pacific Award” for being one amongst the 500 fastest growing companies in terms of revenue and “Dun & Bradstreet ECGC - Indian Exporters’ Excellence Award”. His contribution to the society has marked a difference in the field of technology. He has always been keenly served the masses and has given the society the much-needed security products which were never thought of above all, he has given them the peace of mind in terms of security, which is very precious.

Others among the people to get the honors were Shankar Mahadeven, Shreya Ghoshal, Ashwini Bhave, Hariharan, Shobha Iyer etc.

This is a great honor for all the felicitators and a set example for citizens who thrive to do significant amount work for the benefit of the society and the well beings.